

Richard Hunter is vice president and Gartner Fellow in Gartner's CIO Research Group – Office of the CIO Research Team, where his recent work has focused on IT risk management and the business value of IT. Mr. Hunter is the author of the acclaimed books "World Without Secrets" (Wiley, New York, 2002) and "IT Risk" (with George Westerman, Harvard Business School Press, Boston, 2007). His next book for CIOs, "The Real Business of IT: How CIOs Create and Communicate Value," will be published by HBSP in October 2009. He is in much demand as a speaker and advisor to CIOs.

Mr. Hunter was appointed vice president and director of research for application development in 1998 and was also a research director in GartnerG2. He joined Gartner as a research director in the application development and management service. He was appointed a Gartner Fellow in 2002 and a member of Gartner's Senior Research Board in 2007.