

Biographical notes for Steve Wilcox – Vice President of Intertribal Software Consultants

Steve Wilcox is the Vice President of Intertribal Software Consultants (ISC), a software development company that develops leading edge software solutions with a specific focus on Tribal Government operations. ISC has been producing high quality software solutions since June 1993. Headquartered in Durant, Oklahoma, ISC's President/CEO is Ida Curley-Wilcox who is a full blood Navajo. ISC is a certified Woman Owned Minority Business and a member of the Oklahoma Indian Preferred Business organization.

Steve is a Computer Science graduate from Oklahoma State University and enjoys applying technology solutions to Tribal Government day to day challenges. Steve has over 25 years of Information Technology project management experience and 12 years of experience in creating Centralized Tribal Services and Records Management Solutions. Steve has completed many successful IT projects for Tribal Governments such as Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma, Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes, Comanche Nation, Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, just to name a few.

When not solving the next IT challenge, Steve enjoys life with a great family and teaching Martial Arts for the last 30 years. Steve currently holds a 7th degree Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do.