

Michael Day, VP of IT- Cannery Casino Resorts

Mike Day is a visionary and goal-oriented IT Executive with extensive experience in planning, developing and implementing information systems across a diverse variety of organizations. Mike's experience including his current position as the VP of IT for Cannery Casino Resorts has taken him to many career achievements. Prior to his current position he was employed by the Sault Tribe of Chippewa Indians as Director of Information Technology where he built one of the largest networks and systems in the State of Michigan for an organization that produces $750 million in annual revenue. Mike is the founder of TribalNet and Director of the TribalNet Advisory Boards. Mike's professional involvement extends not only to TribalNet, but also to Gaming and Leisure Magazine, where he serves as an Advisory Board Member.