

Rod Luck, Vice President of Information Technology at Pechanga Resort & Casino

1. Has been at Pechanga Resort & Casino for the last 6 years.
2. Has been in the casino business for over 15 years working for such companies as Caesars, Fitzgerald's, Ameristar and the Peppermill
3. Has opened 3 Indian casinos – Turning Stone for the Onieda Indians of New York, the Akwesasne Mohawks Casino of New York and now Pechanga in Temecula.
4. Member of the Asian Business Association for San Diego and Orange County. Supportive of the Asian community by providing job opportunities, supporting social events and providing technical advice whenever needed.
5. Speaker at many technology conferences for companies such as IBM, HP, 3COM, Cisco and Microsoft and appeared in news articles for such companies as Communication News, Hewlett Packard news, Planet.com, Pilipino News and the Asian Journal
6. Most recently consultant for IGWB (International Gaming and Wagering Business) whose recent article was on table games tracking in casinos.
7. Was an advisor for the senior class at San Marcos State College for their senior experience program
8. Likes to fish, and adventures have taken him to Costa Rica, Guatemala, Ecuador, Alaska and other parts of the world.